JANUARY 24 – 27

MACHU PICCHU

From the shores of México, we venture into the Peruvian Highlands to Cusco and the Sacred Valley of the Incas, where the Andes Mountains provide a majestic backdrop to the incredible remnants of a prolific civilization.

EXPLORE ONE OF THE NEW SEVEN WONDERS OF THE WORLD

Board a train chartered exclusively for our group for a spectacularly scenic journey through the Urubamba Valley to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Machu Picchu, an astonishing testament to the might of the Inca Empire. After exploring the archaeological wonders of this ancient city, enjoy cocktails and live entertainment on the private train ride back to your hotel.

DISCOVER CUSCO'S HISTORIC TREASURES

The former capital of the Inca Empire holds a wealth of archaeological ruins and Spanish architecture to discover, from the monumental fortress of Sacsayhuaman to the ruins of the temple of Korikancha, where the Convent of San Domingo was built using the original Incan stone walls. Visit the Plaza de Armas, home to the exquisite Cusco Cathedral, before enjoying a Peruvian lunch at a local restaurant.

IMMERSE IN PERUVIAN CULTURE & TRADITIONS

Visit the charming village of Chinchero, where you can browse a colourful local market and meet a master Andean weaver for a demonstration in Peru's ancient textile arts.

STAY IN THE HEART OF THE ANDES

To explore Machu Picchu, we have carefully selected accommodations at a boutique property in Cusco. Palacio Nazarenas, A Belmond Hotel, is a former 16th-century Carmelite convent that has been painstakingly restored, with prime access to the city centre. Opulent suites are uniquely designed with carved wood furnishings and ornate décor. You will also enjoy a delightful lunch at Belmond's Monasterio property during your stay in Cusco.

Iguazú Falls

JANUARY 27 – 30

BUENOS AIRES

DELVE INTO THE CITY'S CONTEMPORARY ART

Enjoy a private visit to MALBA, the Latin American Art Museum of Buenos Aires, which features works by Frida Kahlo, Diego Rivera and Antonio Berni. Visit a local gallery for a private viewing and behind-the-scenes access.

RELAX AT OUR TIMELESS-MEETS-MODERN HOTEL

Occupying a sleek high-rise tower as well as a historic Belle Époque mansion in the exclusive Recoleta neighbourhood, Four Seasons Hotel Buenos Aires offers European elegance with a uniquely Argentinian twist. Guest rooms and suites look out on the hotel's lush gardens or surrounding cityscape. Dine on Argentinian steak and seafood at Elena, one of Latin America's 50 Best Restaurants, take a dip in the heated outdoor pool, or choose from a full range of treatments at the Cielo Spa.

WITNESS THE WONDERS OF IGUAZÚ FALLS ON A DAY TRIP

Named for the place where the Iguazú River plunges over a lava cliff into 275 interlinking waterfalls, the Iguazú Falls are one of nature's most magnificent spectacles. Our Private Jet Journey offers you access to this UNESCO World Heritage site on a day trip from Buenos Aires.

JANUARY 30 – FEBRUARY 4

ANTARCTICA

Our Private Jet Journey delivers you to Chile for an overnight stay in Punta Arenas, the gateway to Antarctica. The next day, when weather conditions are favourable, take a charter flight to King George Island and board a luxurious polar ship for an unforgettable expedition to the seventh continent.

SET SAIL ON A FOUR-NIGHT ANTARCTIC CRUISE

A state-of-the-art polar ship is your home base for exploring the enchanting Antarctic wilderness, where few travellers have gone before. While enjoying seamless Four Seasons service in one of the most remote locations on Earth, embark on daily excursions that bring you close to the wildlife and landscapes. All activities in Antarctica are weather dependent, so each day will offer different possibilities rewarding you with unforgettable moments.

CRUISE THROUGH THE ANTARCTIC SOUND

In these untamed waters, come face-to-face with stadium-sized islands of ice, Weddell and leopard seals, and an extraordinary amount of birdlife, including skuas, cape petrels and three types of penguins—chinstrap, Adélie and gentoo.

SEEK ADVENTURE ON THE ANTARCTIC PENINSULA

Choose from Zodiac and hiking excursions to experience the vast peninsula in all its rugged glory, from its iceberg-dotted bays and brilliant blue glaciers to its snow-blanketed landscapes.

VENTURE TO THE SOUTH SHETLAND ISLANDS

Discover the triple peaks of Mount Foster, the spectacular collapsed caldera of Deception Island and the expedition lore of Elephant Island, keeping an eye out for the elephant seals and colonies of penguins that call this archipelago home.

STEP ABOARD AN EXCLUSIVELY CHARTERED SHIP

For our four nights in Antarctica, we have chartered Quark Expeditions Ocean Explorer. This ship blends luxury design with cutting-edge polar expedition technology ideal for navigating the world's most remote waters. All-suite accommodations boast ocean views and private terraces, and the ship's amenities include a restaurant, spa and two lounges. All on-board menus will be overseen by our Four Seasons Executive Chef, while daily excursions will be overseen by our Journey Concierge.
